D E D I C A T I O N

This book is dedicated to the city of Garrett -- to those forces of Our Town, that have been an influence for good in preparing us for living useful lives in a troubled world -- to the churches, for spiritual and moral leadership; to the business houses, for support in various projects; to the tax payers, for providing us with an excellent building and teachers; and to our parents and friends, for always being there when we needed morale building.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"Only the very learned people can explain the exact ways in which we have developed our personalities this year but there are some things that even the humblest of us know about it. Well-planned lessons, rounded club activities, home room and class programs and business meetings, sales activity, athletics, music, parties, dances, lunches together, publications, professional assemblies, talent shows, creative work in many fields, and above all, our many personal friendships have been good and good for us.

In the course of a school year, each of us has millions of experiences. Each experience has some kind of effect on our personalities; each kind of effect comes in countless degrees both negative and positive. You and I have tried to make as many as possible of these experiences the kind that prepare us to live well. Occasionally we miss the mark and perform in a way that is detrimental to us. But how pleasant it is to observe that the vast majority of these events have been to our advantage.

We each receive in proportion to our participation. This is about the same as saying that we get out of life what we put into it. All of us have benefited but not to the same degree. However, even a small success justifies great effort.

May we all close this year with the honest conviction that the expenditures of money and effort directed to our schooling have been fully justified in that we are better prepared to live well" ----- Mr. Flora.

CLASS PROPHECY

I'm the gypsy at the fair,
To me come people from everywhere.
And as I sit in my canvas tent,
Upon the future my eyes are bent.

First I take you over the sea
To Africa and Beverly.
Wansitler is exploring the jungle,
Her search for treasures she won't bungle.

Colleen Williams has her pros and cons,
For she is queen of the Amazons.
In France we find Champ Heavyweight Ross,
While taking time out she embroiders with floss.

Over in London we stop and linger
To hear Betty Andrews, the famous singer.
The Queen's new designer is a bright spark,
To create her gowns she has Mary Lou Clark.

In London's Palladium we find Ralph Baker,
As the world's top comedian he is no faker.
Ruth Mettert is honored, for her the bells ring,
For she is the one who has named "the thing."

Back in New York the weather is bitter,
Still Dolan won't quit as a flag pole sitter.
Our friend, V. Christlieb, drinks plenty of cider,
And then does her stuff as a daredevil rider.

At Princeton George Mayfield has a chair,
"Old Einstein the Second" they call him up there.
Professor Moratz is a well-known speaker,
He still can't decide which sex is the weaker.

Baumgardner, of course, does something new--
He's the dean of women at old P. U.
Bill Leech has plenty of do-re-mi,
He's now a professional golfer, you see.

George Wappes does not stop with being a baker,
He went on to become a famous homemaker.
Our Maxine Walt is a shy housewife,
To knit by the fire is the joy of her life.

About Kenneth Hollis you need not worry,
To earn his bread he removed Arthur Murray.
All day Mary Hilkey is singing a song,
She is the proud ma of a small Hopalong.

Frank Mossberger coaches P. Como so dear,
When Perry sings now you must plug your ear.
Beth Crager's a housewife who handles the mops,
Her husband and children think she is the tops.

D. Hollis does not have to pull on a harrow,
In an escort bureau she shoots Cupid's arrow.
Woody Trostel is now a night-club owner,
And, just like old times, he has pulled no boner.

Doug Zimmerman has a nice job to do,
He educates monkeys for Brookfield Zoo.
When Humpty Dumpty has a great fall,
Call Steigmeyer for some old Hadacol.

Retha Bloom hsa done herself proud as you'd guess.
First woman President of our own U. S.
Glen Camp has now the deck to swab,
In his sailor suit he's a right cute gob.

J. Andrews also has done quite well,
She is a pianist in a famous hotel.
The 'Busco turtle has a new home and name,
He's called to meals now by handsome Dick Dame.

Gwynn Wade is such a successful housewife,
She teaches new brides how to run hubby's life.
Rex Simon is now a friendly mortician,
Who gives Digger O'Dell his worst competition.

The girls in Girls School have all they can do,
To hang on to their men when Schmidt is in view.
Our friend George Tuttle is a Garrett M. D.,
A dealer of sickness and doubt is he.

J. Schulthess, the actress, never is lonely,
At her show "Turtle Dove" there is standing room only.
"Kick your heels," says the man, and he speaks not in jest,
For training the Rockettes is what Richard does Best.

Bernice Stroh is posing for pretty "Cheesecake."
A movie star now, she won't have to bake.
At the Met Eugene Shaffer sings high and sings low,
To hear him croon now costs you plenty of dough.

K. Heinzerling keeps a dude ranch with zest,
If you know what you're doing, young man, go West.
S. Helbert has made a new rocket ship,
And to the moon makes a daily round trip.

Of Mitchell we've lost all trace and all track,
On Mars, say the rumors, she's driving a hack.
Pat Hall is a "sarge" and wears Army rig,
Better answer that call or you'll land in the brig.

I have been told by many a friend (??)
That this sort of thing should come to an end.
Oh, oh, my crystal ball just broke.
So that's the end of this big joke.

BITS ABOUT THE SENIORS

NAME	FAMOUS LAST WORDS	SECRET YEARNING	I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER
Betty Andrews	Work hard for best results.	To be a Disc Jockey	My twelve years of school.
Jeannette Andrews	I shall try to do better than before.	To be a nurse.	My Junior year in High School.
Ralph Baker	"Can't" never did anything.	To be an airplane pilot.	Noon volley-ball games.
Robert Baumgardner	Better late than never.	To discover "the thing."	My borrowed band director's baton.
Richard Best	I wonder what will happen if I mix these acids?	To be a state policeman	Jr-Senior Banquets.
Retha Bloom	Live each day to its fullest.	To be a Civics Teacher.	Taking dictation from Mr. Flora.
Glen Camp	I protest.	To be a millionaire.	My arguments with Mr. Rahmer. (I always lost.)
Vivian Christlieb	It's later than you think.	To be a billionaire.	Flour and water in the class play.
Mary Lou Clark	If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.	To be a valedictorian.	Mardi Gras.
Bethel Crager	Try it again.	To be a race car driver.	The Senior Class Play.
Richard Dame	The early bird gets the worm. (Who wants a worm?)	To be Rip Van Winkle the 2nd.	Sleepless days after sleepless nights.
Doris Dolan	Let's get our typing, Maxine.	To be a jungle explorer.	Wrestling with Judy in the class play.
Byron Ferguson	Always obey your study hall teacher.	To be a race driver.	The good times I had in my Model A Ford going to gym class at the gym.
Patricia Hall	Pay attention.	To be a beautician.	Taking pictures for the Aeolian.
Katrina Heinzerling	Eat, drink, be merry for tomorrow we go to school.	To be a famous chef.	The Weekends.
Sharon Helbert	Keep your sunny side up.	To be a farmer's wife.	The flour and water paste of the class play.
Mary Hilkey	Keep on the sunny side of the street.	To be a farmer's wife.	The Mardi Gras.
Dolores Hollis	If you can't play a sport, be one.	To be my own boss.	Trying to hold my temper.
Kenneth Hollis	What time is it?	To be a precision machinist.	Parties after athletic contests.
Franklin Jordan	You can't keep a good man down.	To be an airplane pilot.	The fun and work in physics class.

William Leech	All things require skill except eating.	To be a graduate from G. H. S.	A certain nickname.
Jessica Lewis	Romeo, Romeo, where art thou?	To be a man hater.	The experience of being a twin.
George Mayfield	Let's join up.	To not waste time writing silly data.	Filling out yearbook . . . information!
Ruth Mettert	Remember me?	To be an opera singer.	G. H. S.
JoAnn Mitchell	Eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow you may diet.	To be a model housewife.	My number of points made in G. A. A.
Karl Moratz	Now let's be serious.	To get a new visa to the U. S. A.	Fellowship in Garrett High School.
Franklin Mossberger	Never again!	To be a crooner.	Promising to do better next six weeks.
Roberta Ross	Take care, they're the best years of your life.	To see the world as an army nurse.	The Play error -- "You sure made gobs out of those suckers."
Sharon Schmidt	Business makes the world go around.	To be as popular as Hopalong Cassidy.	The big clinch in the class play.
Judith Schulthess	Laugh and the world laughs with you.	To be a big game hunter.	Getting to school on time.
Eugene Shaffer	Keep your nose to the grind stone.	To be an admiral.	Fourteen years in school.
Rex Simon	See you in the funny paper.	To be successful in whatever I wish.	Jumping the bus at 7:35 A. M.
Patricia Steigmeyer	Oh, I've got plenty of time.	To be a paratrooper.	The spider in English class.
Bernice Stroh	I couldn't be so clumsy as to spill sulphuric acid.	To be Mayor of Garrett.	My mad dash to beat the 8:30 bell.
Woodrow Trostel	I'll see you in the funnies.	To be President of the U. S. A.	You.
George Tuttle	Get along with your teachers.	To play basketball with the Pistons.	Our F. F. A. parties.
Gwynn Wade	I'm going to be there on time this time!	To never see a freckle when I look in a mirror.	What I should forget.
Maxine Walt	Late to bed, early to rise makes a girl have bags in her eyes.	To be a Rip Van Winkle the 2nd's wife.	What all I forgot.
Beverly Wansitler	The bell rang.	To swim the English Channel.	Graduation night, if it comes.
George Wappes	Study hard!	To be a college graduate.	The food in the class play.
Colleen Williams	Oh my! I forgot!	To type 60 words a minute (no errors).	When the chair, knitting, and I became tangled in the Play.
Douglas Zimmerman	I'll make this shot.	To be the 2nd Willie Hoppe.	Muckers.

JUNIORS

With their new class "Rings on Their Fingers and Bells on Their Toes" the inspired Juniors set out to achieve their goal -- the Junior-Senior Banquet. Through wind and rain Juniors could be seen and heard above the commotion of the cheering crowds at G. H. S. football games -- doing what? -- sometimes selling ice cream bars in sub-zero weather and at other times, steaming coffee when it was ninety degrees in the shade. Sales boomed! It just shows what good salesmanship can do. No doubt these Juniors could have sold refrigerators to Eskimos. Part of this remarkable sales ability was gained through persuading friends to buy candy bars at the Junior candy case.

The shelter of the gym protected the spectators from the winter winds at basketball games, but a familiar sight was a Junior, braving -- not the wind, rain, or snow, but -- stray basketballs and miscellaneous flying missiles. The purpose of such endurance? -- to sell the now-famous Junior wares.

After the games, still more dodging took place, only this time it was on the dance floor. No one minded since all had fun at the Junior-sponsored dances.

These money-making schemes served as the means of attaining the goal. For help, the Juniors had competent leaders: Bernard Myers, president; Irma Diederich, vice-president; Gwenn Grogg, secretary-treasurer. Under their leadership, at last all the efforts combined to result in the ultimate end -- the Junior-Senior Banquet -- a final blaze of glory and the reward of nine months of work. This more than compensated for the effort the workers had put forth. This was all done by the Juniors. -----

Although the nineteen hundred and fifty football season was not too successful, a brighter future should be in store for Garrett High School because only five of the eighteen lettermen are being lost through graduation. Team work, team spirit, co-operation, and experience were increased during the year.

For the first time, the eighth grade had a chance to show their skill and gained experience playing football before entering high school. They won over the Freshmen by a score of 14 to 0.

John Hovarter, Glenn Warfield, Dick Rimmell, Sam Easterday.
SECOND ROW, left to right:
Kent Gordon, Larry Lantz, Harland Quince, Fred Clevenger, Lonny Shippey.

The DeKalb County Reserve Championship went to the Garrett "Handcars." Starting the season with just about the same group as last year, the future looked bright for them because the line-up consisted of nearly all Sophomores.

This team broke a twenty-two game losing streak in the first Kendallville game. The team is led by consistent scoring, rebounding, and a scrappy punch which need to go together in order to have a championship team.

Trophy won by the DeKalb
County Reserve Champions
